mine was too sweet for u, urs was a bit too bitter for me (tho i liked it na rin after a while? HAHahaha) i loved being on display with u <3 HAHahaha perio szn still, yet despite all the stress and pressure of the finals, i enjoyed the week because i got to spend time with u too. i love working together, my love. we also saw a rose here and it reminded me of tlp's love symbolism. for me, it's u! u're my rose.

cute candid photo! it rained here. u loved the rain! i love taking pics of u. this is giving very soft launch gf vibes. and i just rlly wanted to hug u so bad. going home makes me kinda sad kasi i still want to spend time with you. nakakabitin pa rin no matter how long we were together, but i know ill be with you for the next days, so it's fine. it's alright. it's bearable.

the notebook !

2023-06-09 at 11:29 PM

bruno major's "nothing" kept repeating in my head. OH MY GOSH IT'S PLAYINGGG HAHAAHAH i love the timing! i'm listening to ur playlist rn as i'm creating our memory lane hihi. it's june 6, 1:12 am as i'm writing hehe. anw, yeah the line "we'll watch the notebook for the 17th time, i'll say it's stupid and u'll catch me crying." well, u kinda cried at the end and said it was ugly, well it's funny and cute how the lyrics both kinda match and mismatch hihi. school's over and it's summer na, our fear. but as i'm typing, i can feel like we can get over this, love. i really really really love you and i'm willing to put in a lot of effort to make us work. i want to watch so much more movies with you until we've watched every single one in history. i want to wake up to you. i want to cuddle with you without worrying about the time. i want to kiss you and hug you anytime bc u're near. i want to explore the world with you and know i'll be able to face any hurdle bc u're by my side. but for now, if it means getting to experience my goals with you in the future, then i'm fine with seeing u through the screen. i'm fine with us growing in diffirent places as long as i know we'll be there for each other, watching each other become better individuals, knowing we'll always have each other's support.

thank you for spending time with me, babie!

dia date <3

2023-06-03 at 11:43 AM

cutie walk with babyboo! hehehe. i really enjoyed this day with you, lavie! i was sad nung una kasi i thought di kita masyadong makakasama pero we had spent hours sa dia and i was so happy to finally see you again! spending time with you always feels like home. you're a familiar place. my heart feels so safe around you. i had a blast here! and there, i received a necklace that i value way more than you could ever imagine. it's so beautiful and it was thoughtful of you to give me something that reminds me of my passion. i appreciate you so much!

in all honesty, this day felt like a dream because i found it hard to believe you were right in front of me. i didn't want time to move forward. i didn't want another second to follow. i didn't want this dream to end. in fact, i'd like to believe it didn't. despite us not being together inside the dia cafe, it comforts me to think that we can look at the same sky and know that we're still together. it's close enough, being in the same planet, existing at the same time, meeting each other in this life, loving each other at the same time, it all feels surreal to me. i've never been in a relationship like this before, so pardon me for still being so amazed by you. i will forever be amazed.

happy four thirteens! may we spend the rest of the thirteens in our lives celebrating our love together i love you lots, forever and always, my dearest deya, my one and only lavie <3
